

KIM YAPCHAI

Kim Yapchai is the Chief Counsel, Environmental, Social & Governance and Chief Ethics and Compliance Officer for Tenneco, Inc. (NYSE), one of the world's leading designers, manufacturers and marketers of automotive products for OEM and aftermarket customers.

Kim was designated the company's first Chief Sustainability Officer in September 2020 and has been leading Tenneco's global team for Ethics & Compliance since 2018. Prior to Tenneco, she was the Chief Compliance Officer for Whirlpool Corporation (NYSE), where she transformed their global compliance program and strategy into an award-winning program for 93,000 employees in over 50 countries.

Kim started her career as an Attorney for Ford Motor Credit Corporation for almost seven years, working as a strategic legal advisor for the financing subsidiary of Ford. She earned her JD from Wayne State and her BA in Economics from The University of Michigan.